

INTERMEDIATE CRANIAL COURSE: EXPANDING THE OSTEOPATHIC CONCEPT INTO THE CRANIAL FIELD

OSTEOPATHY'S PROMISE TO CHILDREN

Course originally developed by Viola M. Frymann, DO at Osteopathic Center for Children.

Course Directors: Raymond J. Hruby, DO, MS, FAAO and R. Mitchell Hiserote, DO May 3-5, 2019

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is intended for qualified practitioners who have successfully completed an approved (Osteopathy's Promise to Children, Osteopathic Cranial Academy, or Sutherland Cranial Teaching Foundation) 40-hour basic cranial course. During this course, topics taught in the basic cranial course will be briefly reviewed, and then expanded upon, including elements such as additional techniques, technique variations, direct and indirect approaches, and examples of clinical applications. Particular attention will be given to in-depth diagnosis and treatment of temporal bone and facial bone restrictions, cranial nerve entrapments, and the use of intra-oral techniques. Other topics include: treatment sequencing approaches, clinical pearls, how to incorporate osteopathic cranial manipulative medicine into clinical practice, practice management ideas, and a research update.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

After successful completion of this course, the participant will be able to:

1. Describe the whole-body nature of the primary respiratory mechanism (PRM);
2. Diagnose somatic dysfunctions affecting any of the five components of the PRM;
3. Develop a detailed and rational treatment sequence (osteopathic manipulative treatment prescription) for somatic dysfunctions of the PRM;
4. Perform more advanced OCMM techniques for these somatic dysfunctions, including, but not limited to, intraoral techniques, and facial and temporal bone techniques;
5. Apply cranial osteopathic manipulative medicine to a variety of clinical conditions; and
6. Describe the most up-to-date evidence base for cranial osteopathic manipulative medicine.

COURSE CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICY

By applying for this course, the applicant ("Applicant") agrees that the application fee is non-refundable and represents the administrative cost of determining the Applicant's eligibility ("Application Fee"). The application shall require the payment of the Application Fee and the registration fee for the cost of attending the course ("Registration Fee"). In the event an Applicant is denied admission to a specific course the Registration Fee shall be refunded. An accepted Applicant shall be registered for the course and the registration fee payment shall be credited against the Registration Fee for the specific course. If after registration the Applicant desires to cancel his or her registration for the course the Applicant must notify Osteopathy's Promise to Children ("OPC") of their CANCELLATION in writing, ("Notice of Cancellation"), at least fourteen (14) days prior to the initial start date for the course. If the Applicant timely and properly provides OPC with a Notice of Cancellation OPC will issue a refund of the Registration Fee to Applicant. If OPC receives a Notice of Cancellation less than fourteen (14) days prior to the initial start date for the course, or an Applicant fails to attend the course, OPC will not issue a refund of the Registration Fee. In the event an Applicant attends the course but feels that the course did not provide the material or training advertised, an Applicant may request a refund of the Registration Fee. All such requests shall state the course name, date and times of Applicant's attendance and the specific reasons for the requested refund. The Applicant's inability to attend a portion of the course shall not constitute a valid reason for a refund. All refund decisions shall be made by the Executive Director whose decision shall be final.

LIABILITY RELEASE

This program may involve physical activity, including contact by and with faculty and other course participants. This physical activity, including but not limited to physical diagnostics and manual therapeutics, could possibly entail risk for course participants of new injury or aggravation of pre-existing conditions. All course participants acknowledge and agree to assume all responsibility and risk for all losses and damages, including but not limited to any bodily injury, death, and property damage, arising out of or incident to (i) attending the course, (ii) participating in the course, (iii) using equipment or facilities during the course, and (iv) using or misusing any knowledge or information obtained or derived from the course. All course participants acknowledge and agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless OPC, OPC's officers, directors, employees, agents, affiliates, licensors, partners, independent contractors, suppliers and subcontractors from and against all claims, actions, suits, proceedings, losses, obligations, damages including but not limited to any bodily injury, death, and property damage, liabilities, costs, debt and expenses, whether known or unknown, anticipated or unanticipated, arising out of or incident to (i) attending the course, (ii) participating in the course, (iii) using the equipment or facilities during the course, or (iv) using or misusing any knowledge or information obtained or derived from the course at or outside of the course location. OPC reserves the right, at course participant's expense, to assume the exclusive defense and control of any matter for which course participant is required to indemnify OPC and course participant agrees to cooperate with OPC's defense of these claims. Course participant agrees not to settle any matter without the prior written consent of OPC. OPC will use reasonable efforts to notify course participant of any such claim, action, suit, or proceeding upon becoming aware of it. It is the responsibility of all participants to use the information provided within the scope of their professional license or practice.
